

Layoff Response Resources FOR EMPLOYERS

CONSIDERING A LAYOFF?

WorkSource
can help!

Layoff Response Services can help mitigate or avoid costly downsizing. Help your employees get back to work faster.

STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVES to layoffs

WorkSource will help you identify specific strategies to minimize or avoid the need to reduce your staff.

SharedWork

By reducing the work hours of your permanent employees, they can collect partial unemployment benefits to replace a portion of their lost wages.

Customized training

Employers can receive a state B&O tax credit equal to 50% of specialized employee training to upgrade their skills and industry knowledge.

Trade Act Adjustment Assistance

Companies losing business to foreign imports may be eligible for federal grant funding.

Temporary layoff

Employers can place full-time workers on standby for up to eight weeks, making them eligible for full unemployment benefits during that time.

SERVICES AVAILABLE for your employees

We help workers transition between jobs. Consider these resources to help your former staff return quickly to productive employment.

On-site orientation

We travel to your business to provide workers with an orientation of the WorkSource services available to them at no charge, including unemployment insurance, healthcare options, and training opportunities.

WorkSource personal consultation

Your former workers can meet one-on-one with WorkSource staff.

Targeted hiring events and job fairs

WorkSource offers large-scale opportunities to connect workers with job opportunities consistent with their skills and knowledge.

On-site workshops

We'll set up a workshop at your business to refresh workers' knowledge of résumés, interviewing and current job search strategies.
