Number: WIN 0107, Change 10
Date: May 3, 2022
Expiration Date: December 31, 2024

TO: Washington WorkSource System Partners

FROM: Gary Kamimura, Policy Manager

SUBJECT: Temporary suspension of WorkSource System Policy 1101 (CASAS for Basic Skills Assessment) to allow alternative documentation of basic skills deficiency in WIOA Title I-B programs

Purpose:

To communicate the temporary suspension of WorkSource System Policy 1011, Revision 6, which requires Local Workforce Development Boards (LWDBs) to use CASAS to document basic skill deficiency in WIOA Title I-B programs, and to identify other documentation options allowed in federal WIOA Title I-B programs guidance (see Attachment A).

Action Required:

Local Workforce Development Boards and their contractors must distribute this guidance broadly throughout the system to ensure that WorkSource System staff are familiar with its content and requirements.

Content:

Across all titles, WIOA focuses on serving "individuals with barriers to employment" and seeks to ensure access to quality services for these populations. WIOA Section 134(c)(3)(E) states that priority for individualized career services and training services must be given to recipients of public assistance, other low-income individuals, and individuals who are basic skills deficient (BSD).

Basic Skills Deficient (WIOA Section 3(5)) means, with respect to an individual - (a) who is a youth, that the individual has English reading, writing, or computing skills at or below the 8th grade level on a generally accepted standardized test; or (b) who is a youth or adult, that the individual is unable to compute or solve problems, or read, write, or speak English, at a level necessary to function on the job, in the individual's family, or in society.

WorkSource System Policy 1011 Revision 6 requires the use of CASAS tests as the only option to determine BSD in WIOA-affiliated programs, including the Title I Youth and Adult programs.

The WorkSource System is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Language assistance services for limited English proficient individuals are available free of charge.

WorkSource offices across the state are closed to in-person traffic, making it impossible for WIOA Title I staff to administer paper CASAS tests.

All youth program participants must have an assessment of basic skills as a part of the objective assessment; however, this type of assessment is less formal than the assessment to determine BSD (TEGL 21-16). There is no requirement to test all Youth and Adult applicants for basic skills deficiency, only those for whom BSD is being established as an eligibility criterion.

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, the State is committed to exercising as much flexibility as possible to local workforce development boards (LWDBs) and their service providers to establish BSD as an eligibility or priority of service criterion in WIOA Title I Youth and Adult programs.

This guidance is in effect no longer than 6 months (10/17/2020), or until the WTECB determines by an earlier date that one-stop centers are reopened, CASAS is broadly available at the state's community and technical colleges, or CASAS is widely available in an acceptable, fully remote/virtual format. If any of those conditional determinations are made before 10/17/20, notice of the WTECB's determination and rescinding of WIN 0107 will be broadcast through GovDelivery and other appropriate communication channels.
